Advert: Estates Apprentice – Parish of Barnsbury

Could you be our new Estates Apprentice in Barnsbury Parish?

Do you have a strong Christian faith, coupled with a longing to learn, and a passion for community engagement, especially in estates and low-income communities?

Join Church on the Corner and St Andrew's Church as an Estates Apprentice and be part of an exciting 6-year project focused on estates and low-income communities in the Barnsbury and Caledonian Road area.

About the Role:

In this role, you will work alongside a dynamic team of clergy, staff, and volunteers to:

- Gain practical ministry experience
- Develop a strategy for planting and growing a new worshipping community
- Engage in cohort training & formation
- Engage in personal development, including gaining relevant certifications (e.g., health & safety, food hygiene) to enhance your community impact.
- Flexible working arrangements may be considered.

The Estates Apprentice will join a two-year training programme, working with the local church to equip leaders from estates and low-income communities. The aim is to develop leadership skills, grow in faith, and plant new worshipping communities that are rooted in the culture and needs of this context.

This unique apprenticeship combines cohort-based learning, practical ministry experience, and shoulder-to-shoulder learning, helping apprentices develop the skills, resilience, and vision they need to lead in estate contexts.

Our Ideal Candidate:

- Demonstrates initiative and a passion for community liaison.
- Is a practising Christian, as this is a genuine occupational requirement.
- As the first point of contact for many interacting with the church, you will need to be friendly, approachable, and professional.
- Will be willing to undergo a DBS check.

Additional Information:

- Salary: London Living Wage: £13.85 per hour
- Hours: 20 hours per week, with flexible working arrangements considered.
- Contract: This is a fixed-term contract for three years.
